

REPRESENTING RAILROAD WORKERS WHO HAVE BEEN INJURED OR MISTREATED ON THE JOB.

LAW CLERK / ATTORNEY INTERN — Railroad Workers & Unions

Railroad & Union Focus

Litigation Experience

Remote + In Person Options

About Us

We represent railroad workers who have been hurt or are being mistreated. We are proud to be designated legal counsel for SMART, BRS, BMW, and TCU/IAM.

What You'll Do

- Research and draft memos, briefs, and discovery (interrogatories, RFPs, RFAs).
- Assist with deposition prep; summarize transcripts; help with exhibit lists and trial notebooks.
- Analyze collective bargaining agreements, railroad investigations, and relevant federal regulations.
- Participate in meetings with clients and union representatives (as appropriate).
- Track case law and regulatory updates impacting railroad labor and safety.

Role Overview

Ideal for a current 2L/3L interested in unions and employment rights—and in protecting railroad workers who have been injured or discriminated against. Work directly with trial lawyers on real cases.

What You Bring

- Current law student (2L/3L)
- Strong legal research and writing; excellent judgment.
- Labor/employment or administrative law coursework helpful.
- Personal injury/employment litigation exposure is a plus.
- Selfstarter; reliable with deadlines; clear communicator.

Plus Factors (Not Required): Experience with unions, transportation, or worker advocacy. • Background in or connection to railroad families or crafts. • Prior clinic, externship, or litigation experience.
