VANDALISM

It is a federal crime to enter into any railroad train, car or locomotive with the intent to commit murder, robbery or any unlawful violence upon or against any passenger or crewman, or to commit any other crime against any person or property on the train.

It is unlawful to willfully derail, disable or wreck any railroad train, engine, motor unit or car used by any railroad that engages in interstate or foreign commerce.

It is also unlawful to willfully destruct or injure any property moving in interstate commerce by railroad.

15 U.S.C. § 1281

1/ To date the railway labor unions have attempted unsuccessfully to make it a federal crime to shoot at or throw objects at trains.
