SMART TD retirees – most are eligible to receive $2,000 life insurance benefit

If you retired from railroad service on or after April 1, 1967, you may be eligible for a $2,000 retiree life insurance benefit.

Benefits are administered by MetLife for all retirees from railroads participating in the National Railway Carriers/UTU Health & Welfare Plan and the Railroad Employees' National Health and Welfare Plan (formerly GA-23000).

To file a claim, or to obtain a change-of-beneficiary card, call MetLife at (800) 310-7770.

Retiring on Disability? Contact MetLife to ensure eligibility for this benefit.

Retirees, keep this notice with your other important documents and keep the designated beneficiary up to date.

When filing a claim, it is helpful to know: The last day you worked; the name of your employing railroad; and, your Social Security number. These items will assist in the prompt processing of claims.
